Brunel Scholarships for 2021/22

We understand that finances are a key factor in your decision about where to study and that a degree is one of the most important investments you can make for your future career. The good news is there are a range of funding options available to support you including competitive scholarships and bursaries which could help you fund tuition fees and living costs while you are at university. Many of our scholarship awards are automatic, so you won't need to complete an additional application form.

Entry requirements for Russia

Undergraduate

Brunel University London welcomes applications from students who are currently taking or hold the following:

- A Level examinations
- International Baccalaureate (IB)

Foundation

If you feel you're not ready for degree-level study or you don't have the required qualifications, choosing a foundation course might be the right decision for you. We offer a wide range of undergraduate pathways at Brunel run on campus by London Brunel Pathway College (BPC). Find out more at brunel.ac.uk/bpc

Postgraduate

Brunel University London welcomes applications from students taking or who hold a Bachelor's degree with good grades. For certain courses, work experience and/or specific academic background will be required.

As a guideline we require the following:

UK requirements	4 Years Bachelor degree or Specialist Diploma
2:1 (Second Class Upper)	GPA 4/5 or GPA 6/10 (ECTS Grading system)
2:2 (Second Class Lower)	GPA 3.5/5 or GPA 5/10 (ECTS Grading system)

Pre-Masters

If you do not meet the requirements for direct entry to our Master's degree programme, you can apply to join a pre-master's programme run on campus by London Brunel Pathway College (BPC). Find out more at brunel.ac.uk/bpc

English language

Brunel recognises a range of English language qualifications. If your level of English does not meet the entry requirements for your course, you'll be offered the chance to attend an English language course at the Brunel Language Centre. For more information (including start dates for pre-sessional English, fees and how to apply), visit brunel.ac.uk/language-centre

Study abroad

Studying abroad in the UK will be one of the most exciting decisions of your life. The Study Abroad programme at Brunel is designed for international students to gain academic credit over a term or full year whilst being fully integrated in the university. Find out more at brunel.ac.uk/studyabroad
